Petersburg, December 1.

TOWARDS the End of last April Two English Vessels touched at the Port of St. Peter and St. Paul in Kamtschatka; they staid till the first Week in May, and were supplied very plentifully with every Kind of Provisions from the Magazines of the Crown established there. On being questioned, they said they were going round the World; and from this, and several other Circumstances, there is little Doubt of their being the Resolution, Captain Cook, and the Discovery, Captain Clerke. This Fact is related in a Letter received a few Days ago from a private Person in Kamtschatka. The ministerial Report is first given, according to the usual Custom, to the Governor of Irkutsk on the Frontiers of China, and will not arrive here till some Time hence. It is added, that the Ships bore no Appearance of having met with any Accident in the long Voyage they had already performed, and that the Crews were healthy and in Spirits.

Admiralty-Office, December 25, 1779.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the Twenty-sixth Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That, on the 7th of this Month, the Ship Love and Unity, of which Thomas Jackson was Master, bound from Gibraltar to Deptford, was stranded in the Port of Penzance.
